Reckrell & Co.'s large lighthouse which they had just about completed and in which they had begun to store ice, collapsed yesterday morning. The building, which was situated near the depot, was a complete wreck and the ice fell heavily on worthy gentlemen.

The primary election in Bourbon county, Saturday, resulted in the selection of Emmet M. Dickson over Horace Miller by a majority of 220. Mr. Dickson is a bright young man and will reflect credit upon his native county. His opponent has been in the same field several times.

Hood Smith, of Winchester, was in the city yesterday and reports that the dogs got into his flock of Southdown sheep last week and killed and wounded about $500 worth. Hood says he will never vote for another Representative in the Legislature unless he promises him a good dog law.

Mrs. Mary Eyl died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Schwaninger, on Friday morning aged 74 years. Funeral services at St. Patrick's church conducted by Rev. Father on Saturday morning, after her body was taken to Louisville for interment.

The correct way for the pupils of the school district to report on the census is for them to get together and give their answers, not signing, merely giving the number of District sent by mail on Saturday. Funerals of the dead districts will be in time.

J. E. GROVES, Supt.

Rev. R. A. Walton, of Owingsville, accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Georgetown, Ky. West of the Presbyterian will meet in on Thursday, for the purchasing of the new place of worship at pastorate in order that he may be in charge of his new place of ment of the Frankfort Capital Building, as well as the editor is respectfully called to the Citizens' State Capital Building will hold an important meeting at the Commercial Club Saturday afternoon. We do not wish to induce advantage of the Capitol and warn him, that he may be come along with the remaining State Capital furniture.

"The Ripper" has broken loose apparently at work again in his hands. Another of his victims found in a dark, narrow archway known as "Swallow's Gardens." The way referred to is, during the day hours, a well-frequented thoroughfare, especially used by railway employees and stablemen. At all times of the night there are people awake in the houses and pedestrians passing about and through "Swallow's Gardens," but nobody seems to have heard any cries during the early hours the morning when the crime was committed.

Judge Wilson Lewis, of Harlan county, and leader of the Law and Order faction in the Howard-Turner feud was murdered by his son Sidney Lewis on Tuesday night. Recently there had been some trouble between father and son, Judge Lewis becoming afraid of his son, had him placed under guard to keep the peace. They fought in question and a meeting of this society at Lexington, the good work it is accomplishing etc. Miss Carrie Chiles in a happy manner gave a history of home society and its work amidst.

W. P. APPERSON.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shront, pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 26 lbs in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at W. S. Lloyd's drug store. Regular sizes 50c and $1.00

Hon. Henry Watterson is to deliver his magnificent lecture, "Money and Morals" at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday, Feb. 25th. The simple announcement will be sufficient to fill the house. Mr. Watterson is easily the foremost man in the State to-day.

A great journalist who makes and molds public opinion and directs public thought; a statesman grand enough to disdain office; a politician whose opinion is sought after and listened to by the most astute in the land; an orator so brilliant that few take rank above him and yet who wears his God given talent so lightly that one would never suspect he was aware of possessing it, and above and beyond it all he is a man whose heart throbs in closest sympathy with his people. A man whom Kentuckians delight to honor. In every city and town he has visited in our State and elsewhere he has met with an enthusiastic reception. Mr. Sterling will not be behind in her desire to show her appreciation of him, when he comes among us.

Rev. J. P. Dawson closed a very successful series of meetings at the First Presbyterian Church on Thursday. The services were well attended and resulted in 11 additions to the church, nine by profession and two by letter. Two of those who joined upon the confession of their faith were over 70 years of age and all were received into full fellowship with the church on Sunday morning. Rev. Dawson goes from here to Mayville where he will assist Dr. John S. Hays in a series of revival services. On Sunday night the James Howard Y. P. S. C. E., took charge of the service and well arranged program. Dr. and Van Antwerp gave a detailed and interesting account of a meeting of this society at Lexington, the good work it is accomplishing etc. Miss Carrie Chiles in a happy manner gave a history of home society and its work amidst.

Kentuckian Citizen.]

We regret very much to lose our young and talented bachelor friend and tobacco merchant, Wallace W. Scott. He goes to Montgomery county, where he has rented a farm and will cultivate on a large scale. Success to you Wallace. . . . James Conroy and Miss Julia Walsh, of Mt. Sterling, were guests of Miss Kate Archdeacon last Sunday.—[Carlisle Mercury.]

Henry Graves and Wm. Durham, of Montgomery county, were here the first of the week. It was Mr. Graves' first visit, and Jas. McKee took special pains to show him the sights of our city, and to point out our great advantages for manufacturing purposes. Mr. Graves seemed pleased and surprised to find that we had such a prosperous city, and thought the Western railroad would make Cynthia one of the best points in Kentucky.—[Cynthiana Democrat.]

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

SALE—Clover Seed at lowest price. CASSEDY & SMITH.

Daniel Graham, daughter of John and Abbie Peters, was born Jan. 21, 1889; died Jan. 28, 1891.

God is love, and death is no more. Though we may not understand it, good to us in all things and death to us is no more.

"Twas his love that gave me life, sweet and fragrant little baby, cheering us in lonely hours, bringing many a darkened hour.

"His love that takes the life from us, where no foot nor voice can reach; there again we'll see his face, when his love shall call us home.

How that love constrains her parents, brothers, sisters all to weep; true and faithful, follow Jesus—thus to Daniel you may see.

In his arms the lamb he carries, gently leading those that love him, to the home of all the pious.—[Lan. XI, H. G. GYRON.]

New Goods, New Goods! Just received today from New York and now in stock. Most magnificent line of spring hats, bonnets, flowers, and in fact all the novelties in spring millinery at

T. P. MARTIN & Co's. Williams and Hamilton's Sale.

At the Williams and Hamilton sale on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, of last week, a large amount of farming utensils, stock, etc., was sold. Corn brought $3.20 per barrel; hay, $5 to $6 per ton; sheep, $4.50 per head; mules, $30 to $135. The aggregate amount of the entire sale was $16,548.30. The cattle averaged about $75 per head.

Barrington Duchess 3rd went to English Anderson for $525.

Barrington Duchess 4th to same for $925.

Barrington Duchess 5th to George Hamilton for $950.

Barrington Duke 10th, T. H. Martin, of Kansas City, for $205.

Duchess of Longwood, George Hamilton, $510.

3rd Duchess of Longwood to the same for $310.

Jeph Harper, b h, by Baywood, dam by Champ Ferguson, Mr. Nicholas, of Georgetown, $275.

The sale, all in all, was a fair one. The cattle sold low, but there is virtually no market for Shorthorns, and some of the horses should have brought more money. Some buyers certainly secured bargains.

Hon. Henry Watterson will tell you about "Money and Morals" at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday evening of next week (Feb. 25.) Be sure you hear him.

Court-day Sales.

J. A. Ramsey, Auctioneer, reports as follows: About 400 cattle on the market. The best offerings bringing $4 per cwt. 800 lb. mountain heifers brought $3; 15 good yearling steers, weight 800 lbs., brought $27.60 per head. Plain and rough steers, 2 1/2 and 3 cents. The market was active at the above figures which are fully 50 cents per hundred higher than last court. There was the largest crowd that has been here on any court-day in twelve months or more.

W. H. Fletcher, Auctioneer, reports a large crowd in attendance. Large number of cattle on the market, among them some 150 head of work cattle which brought from $50 to $110 per pair. A large number of mules and plow horses. The mules brought from $50 to $130 and horses from $25 to $125. Of the large number of cattle many were a common grade of mountain stock. Some of the better grades brought fair prices.

Yesterday A. W. Hamilton's half interest in 711 acres of land sold to F. M. Ewing for $24,900, and his half interest in 400 acres, subject to Mrs. Williams' life estate, was sold to Miss Ida Hamilton for $4,035. The entire sale of land and stock amounted to $45,583.

At J. W. Ratliff & Son's stable 6 horses changed hands at from $75 to $175.

Ladies and you will be surprised to find a beautiful new spring millinery.

New South Nat'l Bld'g & Loan Ass'n, of Cumberland Gap, Tenn.

Authorized Capital, $10,000,000; paid up capital $100,000. Chartered by the State of Tennessee. Its prime object is to assist worthy persons who own town lots to build and own their own homes at a small expense by loaning them money on long time and at a low rate of interest. Money invested in the stock of this Association will pay nearly if not quite twice as much as money invested in bank stock, at the current price of bank stock, and is much safer. All their loans being made to members of the Association and secured by mortgage or unincumbered town or city property.

I have been appointed agent for the Association and will take pleasure in explaining its workings to anyone interested, in selling their stock or negotiating loans.

17-11 Thos. H. Fox, Ag't.

Coal Buyers, Remember that I will sell you coal for spot cash cheaper than anyone.

26-11 Squire Turner

Louisville Tobacco Market, furnished by Glover & Durrett—Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on market for the week just closed amount to 4,204 hids, with receipts of 2,646 hids for the same period. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount to 20,669 hids. Sales of the crop of 1890 on our market to date, 12,050 hids.

There is very little that is now to be said of our market this week. The principal features of the week were the very large offerings and good prices. There was a little irregularity during the week on the medium grades of New Burley, but the market closed firm all along the line. Old burley remains unchanged. The following quotations fairly represent our market for Burley tobacco crop of 1890:

Trash (dark) or damaged tobacco, $2 to $3.00; colory trash, $3 to $7; common lugs not colory, $3.50 to $5.50; colory lugs, $5 to $10; common leaf, $7 to $10; medium to good leaf, $10 to $16; good to fine fillers $16 to $20; select wrappry tobacco, $20 to $27.50.

MATRIMONIAL.

R. L. Barnett, of Texas, and Miss Susan C. Storms, of Bath county, were married in this city on Thursday morning.

Cincinnati Live Stock Market.

Receipts of cattle for week ending Feb. 11, 2,628 head against 2,090 for last week. The market for choice butchers and heavy feeders was active and strong.

There was equally as good demand and the receipts were somewhat smaller than for the preceding week. The market ruled active, and prices on mostly all kinds sustained a further advance of at least 10c @ 15c per 100 lbs. Local and neighboring city butchers were hungry for good steers, and anything of a desirable character was eagerly picked up by shippers, but there were only a few above fair quality among the offerings. A few choice steers, 1,800 to 1,900 lbs. sold at $5 @ $5.25, one fine heifer 1,400 lbs. $4.50 and one cow 1,600 lbs. brought $4.25, thus showing a fair representation of values of choice grades. Feeding cattle sold higher and the supply was far short of the wants. To-day (Saturday) there is a firm tone to the market with a good inquiry for all desirable grades of both light and heavy averages.

Shippers, good to choice, $4.50 to 5.00; common to fair, $3 to 4, oxen, good to choice, $4.00 to 4.50; to fair, $2.50 to 3.75; butchers, good to choice, $3.85 to 4.50; extra, $4.35 to 5.00; fair to medium, $3.00 to 3.75; common, $1.65 to 2; fair to good heifers, $2.75 to 3.90; choice, $4 to 4.75; cows, good to choice, $3.25 to 4.00; common to fair $1 to 2; fat dairy cows, $3.00 to 3.75; stockers, $2.75 to 3.50; feeders, $3.25 to 4; yearlings and grazing calves, $2.75 to 3.50.

Hogs—Receipts 18,291 head; demand light, market easy; common and light, $3.50 to 3.65; packing and butchers, no good ones on the market.

Sheep—Receipts 640 head; common to choice, $3.25 to 5.25; extra fat wethers and yearlings, $5.25 to 5.50.

Lambs—Supply short, and strong demand; common to choice butchers, $4 to 5; good to choice shipping, $5.50 to 6.25 @ 100 lbs.

Attention!

I offer for sale privately, on easy terms, my farm near Sharpburg known as the A. Byrd homestead. I desire to say that all persons indebted to the estate of E. Caldwell, Dec'd., must come forward and settle on or before March 10th,
